

ABOUT ALLEMANSRÄTT WILDERNESS PARK

Literally, 'alleman's rätt' means "everyman's right" and is written into the Swedish Constitution. It gives everyone in Sweden access to certain public or privately owned land, lakes, and rivers to walk, cycle, ski, camp (for one or two nights), to pick wildflowers, mushrooms and berries.

The freedom to roam, or "everyman's right", is the right of public access to the wilderness or the "right to roam".

Allemansrätt Park, Lindström's Wilderness and Swedish Heritage Park is 125-acres. The park includes a 14-acre secluded lake, eskers, ephemeral wetlands, a 5-acre island, a 33-acre peninsula and an 1853 homestead.

The park remains virtually undeveloped but provides trails, benches, restrooms, parking lots and two campsites. Visit our 1890's historical house kiosk and read the astonishing history of this land.

In the spirit of Swedish Allemansrätt, we welcome you to walk, ski, snowshoe, run, canoe/kayak or camp (in designated spots). You might also find berries, asparagus and mushrooms to harvest in season.

Please respect this park by:

- Packing out your trash
- Leashing and picking up after your pet
- Not using motorized vehicles
- Being considerate of other visitors
- Respecting wildlife
- Leaving what you find
